Hait's financial crisis attracted attention in Washington when a large amount of gold, said to total $500,000, was taken from the vaults of the bank at Port au Prince and brought to this country on the gunboat Machais for safe tweeling in a New York bank. This money represented future interest payments on Haitl's debts, and it was taken after there were rumors that the government planned to seize it.

Since then the Haitian government is said to have appropriated $70,000, which was found in the vaults of this bank. ROLN. Germany, Jan. 4.—The discussion which has been going on as a result of the claims of Switzerland that her neutrality has been violated because of the fact that certain French and English air craft have flown over her territory will, it is now believed, result in a new application of international law concerning air rights. Commenting on the cause of this discussion, the Volkszeitung says:

"After Swiss papers called attention"

At first, in alarm, we are ready to say, would not that be a most dangerous condition of things? Could any royal family, however noble and generous, be entrusted with such autocratle power without fear of its being misused for the ensiavement of the rulers? Have we not learned this in the history of the past six thousand years? Do we not see the necessity that the people shall rule whether in Congress or in Parliament in Doumas or in Chambers of Deputies?

Yes, my dear friends, I heartily accede to all this; but when I describe the nature of the Kingdom and its personnel, all fears will assuredly flee, and

NEW YORK CITY, Jan. 3.—Pastor Russell addressed a large audience tonight at the New York City Temple, West 63d St., near Broadway. His text was, "For He must Reign, till He hath put all enemies under His feet." (1 Corinthians 15:25-28. No More Sighing, Crying, Dying.

What a glorious condition will then obtain when there shall be no more crying, no more dying, for all the former things of sift and death shall have passed away: Glad are we that throw sin and evil, about to establish righteousness on a permanent and everlasting foundation, which will insure that to all eternity God's will shall be done as perfectly in this will shall be done as perfectly in this earth as it is now done in heaven. I ask you to consider candidly—you need not reply—Is there a kingdom in the world today that in your judgment represents a Divine government amongst men? Is there a perfect government, where God's will is done as it is done in Heaven? You are conversant with history. You know the bloody record which marks its pages. You know that so-called Christian Europe has been drenched with blood rope has been drenched with blood more than any other part of the world. You know that the cause of wrong has friumphed oftener than the cause of right. You know that today these kingdoms of Europe, styled kingdoms of God, are destroying one another. You know that great guns great battleships, and menster toranother. You know that great guns, great battleships, and monster tor-pedoes have been prepared by these pedoes have been prepared by these various nations for use against one another, while they all claim to be Christ's kingdoms. Is this logical? Is this rational? Most assuredly not! We must go to the Bible for true information on this subject. It tells us that these kingdoms are not the kingdoms of God, but "kingdoms of this world." It tells us that Satan is the Prince of this world (John 14:30: Ephesians 2:2): that he is "the god of this world," "that now worksth in the hearts of the children of disobedience"—so much more numerous than the children of obedience that he through them holds the world's control. But with equal clearness the Bible declares that he and his reign of Sin and Death are permitted of God for a limited time and a special purpose, and that when the due time comes Messiah will take His great comes Messiah will take His great power, and reign—then Satan shall be bound, and all the forces of gin and darkness be restrained, "The Election Hath Obtained It." Come with me and take a cursory view of God's great work thus far accomplished. For more than two thousrace. Then He made a statement to Abraham so explicit that St. Paul declares it a statement of the Gospel in advance. God said to Abraham, I shall bless the world. This could only mean, I shall relieve them of the curse of death which came upon them through Adam's sin. Washington, D. C., Dec. 21, 1914.

To the Chassified Advertising Manager, The Washington Times.

Dear Sir-Having been a subscriber for the past two years to "Nelson's Suburban Directory," I wish to recomment the same to the Business Men of Washington, as a medium by which they can locate a great many of their past and present customers, whose names do not appear in the regular City Directory. The price of this book is small, and in many cases, the locating of a single person will enable you to make and save many times its cost, Yours respectfully,

CLARENCE B, LEWIS,
